Chapter 1 by Gyro

Welcome everyone to the Caterpillar game show where we all learn about the useless facts of caterpillars!

Chapter 2 by -

First of all, their are Tent Caterpillars. They are exceedingly cute and fuzzy. But they can reek havoc on trees. They create white stringy nests in the branches of plants. This is where they lay their offspring. but the tents they make, can kill a tree.

Those are some useless facts about Caterpillars.

Chapter 3 by Eugenious_hoc24

Secondly, the Isu Natri is a pale blue caterpillar that lives underground. The burrow into dirt, and they turn into greenish pink slugs when fully grown. They create a small hole in a tree trunk and lay their eggs in it.

GROSS!

Chapter 4 by Onyx

Caterpillars are also known as "Squiggilius Wiggilius," but seriously, they only have six legs. The rest are false feet.
